“I Will Give You As a Light To the Nations”

by Peter J. Weller

The Old Testament lessons for January are from the prophet, Isaiah, and they foretell the coming of the Messiah. Isaiah speaks to the ancient Israelites during the Babylonian captivity while they are in exile, and he describes God’s plan for the new life in Israel and Judah when the captivity is ended and the Israelites return.

In these verses from Chapter 49, the Messiah, the Holy One, himself, speaks: “Listen to me, O coastlands, pay attention, you peoples from far away! The LORD called me before I was born, while I was in my mother’s womb he named me. He made my mouth like a sharp sword, in the shadow of his hand he hid me; he made me a polished arrow, in his quiver he hid me away. And he said to me, ‘You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified.’ But, I said, ‘I have labored in vain, I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity; yet surely my cause is with the LORD, and my reward with my God.’

“And now the LORD says, who formed me in the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him, and that Israel might be gathered to him, for I am honored in the sight of the LORD, and my God has become my strength—he says, ‘It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the survivors of Israel; I will give you as a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.’

“Thus says the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One, to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nations, the slave of rulers, ‘Kings shall see and stand up, princes, and they shall prostrate themselves, because of the LORD, who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.’ ” (Isaiah 49:1-7)

Giving Voice for Iowa Children and Families – Lutheran Day on the Hill

Families living in poverty. Iowa children who go hungry. Former refugees building new lives. These kinds of issues are rarely the center of attention at the Iowa State Capitol. Let's change that! Please consider joining Lutheran Services in Iowa (LSI) and the three Iowa synods of the ELCA for Lutheran Day on the Hill, an annual day of advocacy in Des Moines to uplift the needs of our neighbors. The event will be held on Tuesday, February 21. Visit www.LSIowa.org/advocacy next month for event details, online registration and an online toolkit for your congregation, including how to participate in this year's congregational letter-writing campaign.

If you are new to advocacy, come learn more about the legislative process and your role as a citizen. If you've attended before, join us again. We hope this year's schedule will also allow you more opportunities to connect with legislators.

Our Mission: Lutheran Services in Iowa responds to the love of Jesus Christ through compassionate service. LSI is an affiliated social ministry partner of the Iowa congregations of the ELCA (Evangelical Lutheran Church in America) and a member of LSA (Lutheran Services in America). We proudly serve people of all ages, abilities, religions, sexes, gender identities, national origins, ethnicities, races, and sexual orientations. Learn more at www.LSIowa.org and www.facebook.com/LSI.iowa.

A New Harmony- Zach has always had a love of the outdoors. In his free time, he can usually be found in his back yard, mowing the lawn or making sure his snow blower is working properly before the first snow. But when Zach began working with his hourly support staff, Shane, he found a new love: music. Shane is an hourly support staff with LSI's Services for People with Disabilities. Each week, the duo works together to help Zach stay active in the community, practice his coping skills, and achieve his personal goals. Music therapy has become a major part of their time together. "We play guitar quite a bit," Shane says. "I think music therapy is very important. It just helps calm the soul down." During each session, Shane teaches Zach a few new chords or strumming patterns that Zach can practice on his own. "I know when I've had a long, bad day at work, I get kind of angry rather quickly," Zach says. "If I can, I go to my room and grab my guitar and start strumming some chords. I'm not much of a singer, but I've started putting some words with some of the jamming out I do." Seeing Zach's new appreciation for guitar is just one way Shane is constantly inspired to come to work. "A lot of motivation for hourly work is you only have a short amount of time with the individual, and it has to change their life," he says. "When we can use our time to utilize music like Zach has, it can be a great coping skill, and it's working for him."

“I Will Give You As a Light To the Nations”
by Peter J. Weller

To Christians, Jesus is the one speaking in these passages. In Isaiah’s time, the Messiah’s voice was a voice from the future, who spoke to people and nations beyond just the Israelites. The Messiah says that the LORD called him before he was born, named him while he was in his mother’s womb, and gave him the mission of a servant. But, he is to be more. The LORD says to him, “It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the survivors of Israel; I will give you as a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.” (Isaiah 49:6) Thus, God will be not only the God of the Israelites, but of all humanity, and through knowing this Messiah servant, God’s salvation will be made known and available to everyone.

The Messiah knows the enormity of the task that he will face. When the Lord says that he will be glorified through his servant, the servant responds that he has labored in vain and spent his strength for nothing. The Lord tells his Holy One, the Messiah, that he will become deeply despised, abhorred by the nations, and the slave of rulers. Yet, the Lord also says to him that “Kings shall see and stand up, princes, and they shall prostrate themselves, because of the LORD, who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.” The Messiah also understands that his cause, as well as his reward, is with the Lord.

Truly, Isaiah’s ear and mind and heart was tuned to God. He has great perception and understanding of what God is telling him. With Isaiah, one begins to see the enlargement of, and transition from, the idea of God being the God of Israel only, to God being a universal God, known by all throughout the world. Undoubtedly, in today’s world, many people know of God. To what extent they believe, or not believe, in God is a separate question altogether. Different religions see God differently, and they have different ideas as to what eternal life looks like, what salvation means, and what sort of meaningful relationship can be developed with God. So the work of making God’s existence and God’s story known to all peoples continues. Each of us, in our own way, must share in that work.

The youth and adults going to New York this summer would like to host a Parents’ Night Out on Sat. Jan. 21st from 5:30-9pm at Immanuel. The cost to leave your children, in our care, is a free-will offering.

Tricia Kroll at

319-530-0415 or careytm@yahoo.com with inquiries.

The Epiphany Season

January brings us out of the Christmas season and into the season of Epiphany. "Epiphany" means "to show" or "to make known" or "to reveal". During the 2nd century "Epiphany" was used, by the church, to express the manifestations of the incarnation of God in Jesus Christ. During the Epiphany Season, manifestations of God incarnate are commemorated: Jesus, Lord and King, of both Jews and Gentiles – when the Wise Men visited child Jesus in Bethlehem. The Wise Men were the first to reveal Jesus, to the world, as the incarnate Christ. This is called the Epiphany of Our Lord and is always celebrated on January 6th. The color of the paraments for Epiphany is white: purity, holiness, and joy. Jesus' Divinity – Jesus' baptism by John the Baptist, with the speaking of God the Father and the appearance of God the Holy Spirit revealed Jesus to be God's Son (celebrated Sunday, January 8th). The color of the paraments is also white. Jesus revealing God's power through love for the world – made known through Jesus' ministry of preaching, miracles, and healings. The color of the paraments is green: representing the new life that Jesus gives us and our spiritual growth. The Epiphany season concludes with the Transfiguration of our Lord, which will be celebrated on Sunday, February 26th. The church year moves from the season of Epiphany into the season of Lent beginning Ash Wednesday, March 1st.

Christmas Caroling Good for All

On Sunday, December 4th, 23 carolers bundled up and traveled throughout the dark, snowy, Washington night singing Christmas carols. We visited 12 households/nursing home and we delighted everyone as we sang: Away in the Manger, Jingle Bells, and We Wish You a Merry Christmas. We returned to the church and enjoyed delicious soups and desserts provided by the Youth and Fellowship committee. It was a great evening proclaiming the birth of Jesus, our Lord and Savior, through caroling to our Immanuel Lutheran family. More pictures may be viewed on Immanuel's Facebook page: Immanuel Lutheran Washington Iowa.

Service of Lessons and Carols

Join us as we continue to celebrate the Christmas season with a service of Lessons and Carols adapted from the Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols that has been celebrated annually at King's College, Cambridge, for almost a century. The Scripture lessons are those traditionally used at the festival, while the carols that accompany each passage have been selected from the Evangelical Lutheran Worship book. Join us as we worship together, on Sunday, January 1st, 9 a.m. and again on Wednesday, January 4th, 6 p.m. to hear and sing the promises of Christ's birth. Welcome in the new year through welcoming our Savior, Jesus the Christ.

Epiphany Party ~

Celebrate the Arrival of the Magi!

Join us on Friday, January 6th, 6 p.m., as we begin the Epiphany season with a PARTY! We'll begin the celebration with a baked potato bar supper; bring your favorite potato topping or dessert to share. After we enjoy fellowship over a delicious supper we will go into the sanctuary to hear the journey of the wise men to the child Jesus (Matthew 2:1-15). The children will then place the wise men and camel figurines with Jesus. The Epiphany party will conclude with the undecorating from Christmas and preparing the sanctuary for the season of Epiphany. A sign-up sheet for the potato bar supper is on the hallway table.

Youth to Quake in Cedar Rapids

Jason Taylor and Aaron Six will be taking Ryan Jones, Lucas Kroll, Ajay Six, Avery Six, Aden Six, and Rob Taylor to the Quake in Cedar Rapids Friday, January 6th – Sunday, January 8th. The theme for the Quake is "Found": 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost'. Quake says participants will have the opportunity to: Praise and worship God, experience a caring community, develop healthy relationships with other youth, grow deeper in faith through focused workshops, discuss issues of interest, package life-saving meals, and learn about global hunger. The participants will sing and dance to the music of Lynn Stoneking and will be moved and inspired by the presentations of Brian Wallace. We look forward to an exciting weekend as we each deepen our faith in Jesus Christ. We ask that you surround this group in prayer for safe travel and that the weekend is a blessing to all whom attend.
